Chapter I

GOVERNMENT OF GOA

Department of Revenue

Office of the Collector, North Goa District
(Civil Administration Branch)

Of Institution of The Temple and Committee of Mahajans

Article 1:-

This document contains the bye-laws, and the catalogue of the committee (List) of Mahajans of the Devasthan of Shri Shantadurga of Calangute as required under article 379 of the Regulation of Mahajan's in force.

On the 17th day of May, 1989 which corresponds to the month of Vaishak Shudh Trutiya i.e. "Akshay Trutiya" the image idol of Shri Devi Shantadurga was exposed for adoration in the temple constructed at Naikwada of village Calangute in Bardez Taluka in the land of Shri Narayan Datta Shet Verekar bearing Sy. No. 187, Sub-Division 11 of Village Calangute, alongwith the idol of Shri Satpurush as subsidiary which was exposed for adoration Punah Pratistapana on 7th day of May, 1989, which corresponds to Chaitara Krishna Saptami Shake 1911.

Brief History

In the village of Calangute, there existed a temple of Shri Shantadurga which existed since prior to the Portuguese rule in Goa. Prior to rule of Portuguese in Goa religious activities were going on in the said temple. During the Portuguese Rule, the said temple was destroyed and therefore the devotees build a new temple and started worshipping Shri Devi Shantadurga in Village "Nanoda" in Bicholim Taluka.

Article 2:-

During the Portuguese rule, devotees were worshipping Shri Devi Shantadurga in a small structure situated in the land property bearing survey No. 187 sub-Division 11 belonging to Shri Narayan Datta Shet Verekar which is presently standing in the name of Krishnabai Narayan Verekar of Village Calangute.

The temple referred to in proceeding article has to be administered by a religious association consisting of Mahajans which with the name of the committee of the Mahajans constitutes legal personality governed and administered according to general correlative laws and which are mentioned in these bye-laws.

Article 3:-

After Liberation of Goa, somewhere in the year 1977, in the meeting of the Devotees, it was decided to build a temple in place of small structure and accordingly, on 23rd day of April, 1985 i.e. on the day of "Akshay Trutiya" a foundation stone was laid down for building new temple. The works of construction of temple was completed in the year 1988 May. On the 17th day of May, 1989 which corresponds to the auspicious day of "Akshay Trutiya" which corresponds to Vaishak Shudha Trutiya according to Marathi

The Mahajans of the temple are those Hindus mentioned in the list annexed hereto irrespective of caste, creed, class, sect or family group to which such person belongs.

All the persons enrolled as Mahajans shall enjoy equal rights, privileges, honours and shall have added obligation towards maintenance of cult.

Provided that the persons who's names are not included in the list of Mahajans enclosed hereto who are offering various valuable articles to the temple with hope of obtaining divine grace and are performing rituals/celebrations on every Tuesday by turn, shall not have any right as Mahajans and cannot ask to include there names in the list of Mahajans. The persons who are already included in the list of Mahajans enclosed to these bye-laws and who are performing the rituals on Tuesday will however, shall continue to enjoy their right as Mahajans.

The names of the persons who have helped to construct the temple or have given valuable offerings above Rs. 500/- towards the temple will however, be recorded in the minute book from time to time in order to perpetuate their memory.

Article 4:—

The right of Mahajans is perpetual and transmissible hereditarily to their descendants, legitimate and adopted male subordinates taken in conformity with the family laws prevailing in the State of Goa.

Article 5:—

The list of Mahajans inscribed in the attached catalogue, will be revised annually in the month of January by the Administrative boards in an extraordinary session/meeting to be called on any Sunday of the month for the said purpose and enrolling new Mahajans after complying with legal formalities and in conformity with the provision of the proceeding article.

The descendants and the subordinates referred to in article 4th shall promote their inscriptions presenting themselves personally before the administrative Board, after attaining the age of 18 complete years by paying the amount of Rs. 105/- which shall constitute the income towards the fund.

Article 6:—

All the Mahajans enrolled in the catalogue and those that may enroll in future have to pay the annual fee of Rs. 25/- as long as the committee of the Mahajans does not decide on the contrary, which will constitute the annual income of the treasury. The contribution shall be paid against the competent receipt. In default to pay these contributions they shall be considered as debtors of the privileges of the treasury and shall be debarred from enjoying the privileges of Mahajans as long as they do not effect the payment of the said contribution.

Article 7:—

Every Hindu, whether he is a Mahajan or not can offer to the treasury or daily any articles and funds with the onus of religious festivities under the conditions which the said committee of Mahajans may establish depending on the approval of the Government to accept such fund.

However, these will not give the person who is not the Mahajan any right to intervention in the functions of the committee of Mahajans.

Article 8:—

It is the prerogative of the said committee either to accept or decline to accept the funds with demand of religious solemnities, to institute or suppress festivities and resolve all matters relating to the temple and the power of which may not have been conferred on others by law.

Article 9:—

The meetings of the committee of Mahajans and the Administrative Board will be held in the building of the temple till the committee is not having its own building for this purpose.

Article 10:—

All the Mahajans are duty bound to fulfill gratuitously all the functions pertaining to the temple and its administration.
